POLICY

Yukon College is committed to the strategic goal of ensuring quality to attract and retain students. ~~The emeritus/emerita designation is intended to recognize~~ outstanding, distinguished contributions or service of a retired individual to life of Yukon College, normally for a minimum period of 10 years prior to retirement, or 5 years for a chancellor or president. It establishes a relationship which is both symbolic and active.

This policy is established to define the process and terms for appointment of emeritus faculty at Yukon College.

Approval Statement

With the unanimous consent of the Senior Executive Committee and approval of the President this policy is hereby deemed in effect the 25 day of March, 2015.

President, Yukon College

1.0 PURPOSE

1.01 Rationale

The emeritus/emerita appointment recognizes distinguished performance of an employee, honours the employee's standing of high regard in the eyes of peers and colleagues and anticipates the continuation of the employee's contributions to Yukon College past the retirement of the individual.

Appointments are normally for 10 years, with renewal possible.

Appointments may be terminated by Academic Council if the individual's behaviour or actions bring disrepute to Yukon College.

1.02 Criteria

To be nominated, individuals must:

- Have demonstrated exemplary and significant contributions to Yukon College
- Normally have a minimum of ten years' service before retirement
- Be nominated within two years of retirement
- Hold an active appointment at Yukon College at the time of retirement.

Individuals may be nominated under the following categories:

- a. Professor Emeritus/a
 - i. Demonstrated teaching excellence
 - ii. Contributions to one's field through scholarship, creativity, leadership
 - iii. Contributions to the community at large

Given the evolving nature of the definitions of faculty/instructional staff, Yukon College Academic Council will consider each nomination on a case by case basis.

- b. Educator/administrator emeritus/a
 - i. Will not be receiving a professor emeritus/a award
 - ii. Combined years of service of a minimum of 10 years
 - iii. Demonstrated administrative excellence through innovation, awards, peer evaluations, externally recognized achievements and projects

- iv. Contribution to one's field through scholarship, creativity and/or leadership within YC and the larger community
 - v. Contributions to the community at large
- c. Chancellor/president emeritus/a
- i. At least five years' service in the role or four years for the Chancellor
 - ii. Outstanding contribution to the College and the community at large
 - iii. Has gone beyond the expectations of the position description during their tenure

1.03 Nominations

Any member of the College community may nominate an individual. ~~The nomination must be signed by at least one other individual currently employed at Yukon College and contain the following:~~

- i. Rationale for the nomination
- ii. Evidence of achievements within the College and the community
- iii. At least three letters, including one from a community member (if appropriate) outlining the contributions and/or achievements of the individual
- iv. Listing of publications, presentations and/or awards
- v. A statement from the individual stating their intent for continuing association with Yukon College (scholarship, teaching, committee work, etc.)
- vi. Up to date CV of the individual nominated

The nomination shall be submitted to the chair of Academic Council three months prior to the date of convocation. Nominations shall be considered in camera.

1.04 Awards

Emeritus/a awards will be given on an annual basis at convocation. If there are no nominations, or the committee does not approve the award to a nominee, no award shall be given in that year.

Emeritus/a status shall be for a 10 year period, which is renewable. The award may be revoked by (Senate/Academic council) should the individual bring disrepute to Yukon College.

Should an individual wish to renew an emeritus/a appointment, he or she must inform Academic Council in writing six months prior to the end of the initial appointment, stating the rationale for renewal. Academic Council shall consider the renewal and notify the individual of the decision in writing prior to the expiry of the original appointment.

1.05 Benefits to the individual

Benefits and honours, subject to availability and appropriate resources, may include:

- i. Publication of their name in the College calendar and other information or promotional materials as appropriate
- ii. Eligibility to apply for grants under the auspices of Yukon College
- iii. Access to library, computing, athletic, recreational, and other facilities in the College on the same basis as regular members of faculty and will be responsible for any charges associated with these privileges.
- iv. Yukon College email address and computing account
- v. Invitations to College events, including convocation
- vi. Teaching one course per year, if desired, as a sessional instructor
- vii. Participation in meetings at the school/divisional level, as appropriate, at the invitation of the dean
- viii. Participation in special projects and/or committees, as appropriate, at the invitation of the College
- ix. Yukon College business cards with the emeritus/a designation

Note that there is no remuneration of any of the above activities, other than teaching a course as a sessional instructor. Emeritus appointments will be considered as volunteers of Yukon College for the coverage of liability insurance. Emeritus/a award recipients are not entitled to office space or telephones.

1.06 Responsibilities of Emeritus Appointees

Emeriti who use their association with Yukon College for the purpose of external applications for research funding will recognize that such funds must be administered by Yukon College and the use of such funds will be governed by Yukon College policies and procedures.

Emeritus appointees will not use their status at Yukon College to promote personal business purposes.

With the approval of the VP Research, emeritus appointees may co-operate with regular academic faculty in the supervision of the research of Honours or Graduate students.
